

Hello,

Welcome to this second newsletter from the "IMAGES" website. Since the site was relaunched last February, it seems that more and more of you are visiting it. According to my web provider's data, the site has had almost 40,000 visitors since then, and even if we consider that robots may account for 50% of this number, I'd like to thank you for that...

I'd like to take this opportunity to point out that the only data I can obtain on these visitors (on YOU...) via the web provider is concerned is the number of daily visitors. Your personal details are therefore unknown to me, and I advise you to use a V.P.N ...

Even if it was only intended to protect you from unwanted mailings, several of you have expressed surprise at the complex procedure for registering to receive my newsletter. So I've decided to make it freely available via a voluntary download from the site (the PDF file is virus-free ...). The downside of this decision is that I no longer have any information on the number of downloads: so don't hesitate to make yourself known and, if necessary, to react to its content or that of the site.

These "News from the website" will be published quarterly (it's more reasonable ...) and will keep you informed about the site's content and planned new features. We'll also be bringing you new photos! We'll be back at the beginning of February 2024. Until then, we wish you a very happy holiday season, and don't forget to log on every day for a new IMAGE...

ON THE WEBSITE (NOW)

The "DAILY SNAPSHOT" section was created on 23 May 2023, based on a constraint: to propose a new photo every day on 8 different themes, alternating publications on each of them.

On 23 September, after 124 photos published daily, I "relaxed" the formula and 39 photos chosen "without constraint" were offered until 1 November, when I started republishing photos taken during the NUIT BLANCHE 2015 at a rate of 2 photos a day...

On 13 November, I relaunched the section around an IMPROVISED BESTIARY and I'm thinking of continuing this daily feature, which seems to have won the loyalty of some of you...

I would like to remind you that you can view an image and access all the galleries in "ONE CLICK" from the "HOME" page.

As announced in the previous Newsletter , I've republished the series of photos I took for the NUIT BLANCHE 2015 (Sleepless Night 2015) . On the programme: Paris submerged by the sea and giant spiders...

You can see them in the "New on the site" section: <https://pascalmorsagne.com/en/portfolio-118503-nuit-blanche-2015-in-paris-2023-version>

COMING SOON ON THE WEBSITE.....

I'm about to republish one of my favourite reports on the NUIT BLANCHE 2016... (Sleepless Night 2016) It took place from the Hôtel de Ville on both banks of the Seine and offered a series of truly astonishing productions and shows.
